Organization	CentreCanada Newcomer Services Society – Horizon Weekend School
Reports to	Education Coordinator
School day and hours	Every Sunday, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. (Principal on site by 9:30 a.m.)
Monthly pay: 20–30 students	$750
Monthly pay: 31–39 students	$1,000
Monthly pay: 40+ students	$1,500

Pay is based on the number of registered students. The monthly pay covers Sunday work and all weekday duties: parent and student communication, planning, volunteer coordination, and weekly meetings with the Education Coordinator.

2. About the School

Horizon Weekend School is a Sunday school for children from families of different cultures. Most students come from Turkish families, but we also welcome students of other nationalities.

Courses

- Core courses: Quran, memorization (hifz), Islamic studies
- Elective and enrichment courses: Turkish, art, and other activities

Goals of the school

1. Help children spend their weekend in a productive and meaningful way.
2. Help children from different cultures meet, bond, and build friendships.
3. Make sure every student makes real progress in Quran, Islamic studies, and memorization.
4. Create a fun, warm environment where children love coming to school.

3. Role Summary

The School Principal is responsible for the school's daily operations, parent and student relations, teacher and volunteer coordination, events, and the school's visibility in the community. The Principal is the face of the school and the first point of contact for parents.

4. Duties and Responsibilities

A. Parent Relations and Communication

1. Shows patience and understanding toward parents in every situation. Listens to their concerns, helps, and supports them. When tension arises, stays calm and resolves the issue respectfully.
2. Sends a group message to all parents every week: which lessons were covered, what was done, and what is coming next week. Messages are also sent in English for parents who do not speak Turkish.
3. Contacts parents one-on-one when needed to give feedback about their child.
4. Contacts the parent of any absent student on the same day, learns the reason, and records it.
5. Makes sure the community sees what happens at the school, so the community feels ownership of it.
6. Holds at least one parent meeting per term.

B. Student Registration and Follow-Up

1. Registers at least 26 students during the year. The annual target is 30 students.
2. Sets monthly enrollment goals to grow the number of students and shares them with the Education Coordinator.

3. Makes sure every student is contacted at least once during the week by their teacher for guidance and coaching. Assigns students to teachers and checks that these calls happen.
4. Identifies students whose attendance or interest is dropping and takes action.

C. Academic Tracking and ATLAS Records

1. Makes sure the Principal and all teachers take daily attendance in the ATLAS app.
2. For every lesson, ATLAS entries include the topics covered and notes on each student (for example: "Today we worked on Surah Al-Fatiha. Ahmet completed his memorization; Zeynep will continue next week.").
3. ATLAS entries must be completed within 24 hours. We strongly recommend that everyone completes ATLAS at school, right after classes end, before leaving.
4. Checks teachers' entries every week and reminds them of anything missing.
5. Tracks each student's Quran level and memorization progress.
6. Coordinates student progress reports at the end of each term.

D. Photos, Videos, and Documentation

1. Makes sure photos and videos of lessons and activities are taken every week.
2. Uploads them every week, organized in weekly folders, to the Google Drive folder chosen by CentreCanada.
3. Only shares images of children whose parents have given photo consent.

E. Teacher and Volunteer Coordination

1. Prepares the class schedule. Identifies students taking the Turkish elective and sets up classes and level groups.
2. Arranges a substitute when a teacher cannot come.
3. Explains the school's rules and procedures to new teachers.
4. Observes each teacher's class at least once per term and gives constructive feedback.
5. Recruits volunteers beyond the teaching staff as the school needs them (classroom help, events, supervision, photography, etc.).
6. Gives volunteers their tasks, explains the school's rules to them, and follows up on their work.
7. Records volunteer hours and prepares and presents volunteer certificates at the end of each term.

F. Planning and Events

1. Prepares the annual calendar together with the Education Coordinator.
2. Runs all programs according to the calendar.
3. Leads Kandil, Eid, and camp programs, and plans, organizes, and follows up on children's activities for these events.
4. Plans and organizes the end-of-year show and exhibition. Prepares the folk dance team, the nasheed/choir group, and similar groups for the show. Organizes the certificate and award ceremony.
5. Organizes parent volunteers for events and assigns their tasks.
6. Makes sure groups such as folk dance and nasheed/choir practise regularly throughout the year and perform at events and Kandil/Eid programs.

G. Child Safety

1. Makes sure every student's emergency contacts, allergies, and health notes are recorded and easy to access.
2. Follows the morning drop-off and afternoon pick-up procedure. A child is released only to their parent or a person the parent has authorized.
3. Enforces the two-adult rule: no staff member or volunteer is ever alone with a child in a closed room.
4. Makes sure children are supervised during lunch and breaks.
5. Knows what to do in an emergency and explains it to teachers.
6. Makes sure every teacher and every volunteer who works directly with children has a valid Criminal Record Check.

H. Building and Facilities

1. Is responsible for protecting the building and the spaces used, and for leaving them clean and tidy.
2. Identifies missing items and repairs needed, reports them to the Education Coordinator, and follows up until they are fixed.
3. Does the opening and closing checks (lights, doors, classrooms, materials).

I. Fee Follow-Up

1. Tracks parents' payments (made to CentreCanada's accounting office or online).
2. Politely reminds parents whose payments are late.

3. Shares the payment status with the Education Coordinator every month.

J. Reporting and Meetings

1. Attends regular weekly meetings with the Education Coordinator.
2. Submits a short monthly report: number of students, attendance rate, payment status, highlights, and issues.

5. Working Rules

1. The Principal arrives before everyone else, opens the building, and gets everything ready.
2. The Principal and all teachers must be at school and ready at least 15 minutes before classes start.
3. A teacher who cannot come must inform the Principal by Saturday evening at the latest, so the Principal can arrange a substitute.

6. Sample Sunday Schedule

Time	What happens
9:30 a.m.	Principal arrives, opens the building, does opening checks
9:45 a.m.	Teachers are at school and ready; student drop-off begins
10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.	Classes, lunch break, and activities (photos and videos taken)
3:00 p.m.	Students are released to their parents
3:00 – 3:30 p.m.	ATLAS entries and closing checks
Same evening	Weekly group message to parents, calls to parents of absent students, photos uploaded to Drive

7. What the Principal Must Not Do

1. Give fee discounts or exemptions, or spend money, without the Education Coordinator's approval.
2. Use physical or verbal punishment, or humiliate a child in any way.
3. Release a child to an unauthorized person.
4. Argue with parents in group chats or on social media. Problems are solved one-on-one and calmly.
5. Share information about students or families with third parties.
6. Share photos or videos of children whose parents have not given consent.
7. Add or remove programs from the calendar without approval.

8. Success Indicators

- Number of students during the year (at least 26, target 30)
- Attendance rate
- Weekly parent messages sent without missing a week
- ATLAS entries completed within 24 hours
- Weekly photo and video archive kept up to date on Drive
- Calendar events held on time
- Parent satisfaction

9. Qualifications

- Able to read the Quran, with basic knowledge of Islamic studies
- Fluent communication in English and Turkish
- Experience working with children and families
- Patient, friendly, organized, and responsible
- Comfortable with digital tools such as WhatsApp, Google Drive, and ATLAS
- Valid Criminal Record Check (standard in BC for anyone working with children)
- First aid certificate (preferred)
